Comments: I had the honor of seeing secret garden at the GW Lisner Auditorium on Fri April 23 1999. Without a doubt, it was the most moving concert i have ever seen. I have seen Andre Rieu and others but to this day nothing has moved me like Secret Garden. The music seems written for me, my life unfolds as the notes are played. On many songs I feel as if I'm flying through the clouds like a bird. I will forever be grateful for the magic that god has given Secret Garden so it may save a soul like mine... e-mail me for pictures that we took during and after the show. I have autographs too. After the show they shook hands and took time for every single person, which took hours...

Adapted "Belonging" in order to play on whistle with guitar accompaniment at our local folk club, it went down a storm. Would like to communicate with Rolf Lovland if possible for permission to print my arrangement of his tune to enable my fellow folkies to play along with me - do you have an e-mail address?

Comments: Foi uma experiencia maravilhosa encontrar o tipo de música que o Secret Garden produz. É uma música refinada, inovadora, emocionante e neutra o suficiente para que eu, que sou membro da Igreja Adventista do Sétimo dia, pudesse escutar, sem me envolver com relações extremamente místicas, que geralmente estão presentes em outros artistas do gênero. Acho a qualidade e os resultados emocionais do Secret Garden, um produto eminentemente científico, sendo a soma de boas melodias, bons músicos, boas filosofias e a genialidade do Duo.

Um abraço aos amigos do SeGa

Comments: With wonderful background pictures and great Secret Garden songs, and with awesome design, your site is indeed great. Secret Garden is really unique for me. The melodies and the power of emotions in the songs are so deep that I don't think any other musical group or artist can reach that divine dimension in my opinion, simply "unrivalled".

The beauty and artistry of the sad melodies touch my heart, sometimes bring tears to my eyes. The life is often too rough to go on for me, I want to live my dreams not in real life, I just can't, maybe impossible but in my own "secret garden" kept in the inmost place of my heart. There, I live my dreams with the songs of Secret Garden. The songs take me to my own garden, there, in my secret garden, I feel I'm swimming in the ocean of pure emotions with the depth of the melodies.
