

Introduction of speakers for WCAC Spring Retreat 2007

Rev. Francis Tam

Rev. Francis Tam is the Executive Secretary of Canadian Chinese Alliance Churches Association (CCACA). He travels around the world promoting and developing mission work, and he is a regular guest lecturer at seminaries and lead meetings in many churches.

Rev. Tam graduated from Technical University of Nova Scotia (Chemical Engineering) and practiced as a Professional Engineer for twelve years. Under the Calling from God, he obtained his Master of Divinity degree from Ontario Theological Seminary and his Doctor of Ministry degree from Trinity International University in Chicago. Rev. Tam had served as pastors in both Ottawa and Toronto.

Rev. & Mrs. Tam resides in Richmond Hill, and they have two children. Their daughter had served as English Youth Pastor, and she is planning to study her Master of Divinity degree at Canadian Theological Seminary in Calgary this fall. Their son will be traveling to Korea to teach in an International Christian School.

Phil Bergen

Phil was born and raised in Saskatchewan. He graduated from Bethany Bible Institute (1977), Western College of Veterinary Medicine (1987), and Canadian Theological Seminary (1999).

He has been in China as a cross cultural worker for about 9 years, both as a language teacher and as a language student. He also worked as a veterinarian in Saskatchewan.

In January of this year he married Mindy White. Phil and Mindy are planning to return to work in Asia in 2008.

Dr. David Liang

Dr. David Liang was the Thrust Leader and Head of Space Systems and Technology within Canadian Department of National Defence. He was responsible for all space related research and development activities within DND, was also responsible for all satellite communications, ballistic missile defence and nuclear related R&D.

In 1991, he received a special Departmental commendation for his R&D contributions. In 1996, he received a Certificate of Award presented by NATO Advisory Group for Aerospace Research and Development. He has been invited to speak right across North America, Europe, Russia, East Asia and Australia on Evangelism, World Events and Biblical Prophecy and Archeology, Leadership and Entrepreneur, Leadership: Family and Market Place, etc. He has written three books: one on Personal Evangelism; one on Christian Apologetics and one for Evangelistic Bible Study.

He is the Board Member of CCM Canada and former Chairman of the Board, Ambassadors For Christ, USA. He opted for early retirement in February 2003 so that he has more time to serve in Kingdom ministries.
